

Programme Offered:

PG: M.A Journalism and Communication

Sanctioned Strength: 20

FILM FESTIVAL

- The Department of Journalism and Communication was a part of the 7th Chennai International Documentary and Short film Festival 2019. This event was conducted on 9th February in the Mini Auditorium. This was a joint venture with R.P.Amudhan's Maruppakam. Four documentary films which were screened during the event are 'The Tribal Scoop' directed by Mr. Beeswaranjan Pradhan, 'There is no Moon' directed by Mr. Ajay T.G., 'Tin Satyi' by Ms. Debalina and 'Those Stars in the Sky' by Mr. Debaranjan. Mr. T.G Ajay, human rights activist and a documentary filmmaker from Chattisgarh shared his experience on his film 'There is no Moon' with the students.

VINTAGE CAMERA EXHIBITION

- Anchor Mr. C. Gopinath opened the vintage camera exhibition displayed at the Library Reading Hall for the public view on 4th February 2019.

Placement Achievements:

- 2018 - Students placed in ETV, Little Talks and Raj TV
- 2017 - Students placed in Sun Network and Cauvery Channel
- 2016 - Students placed in Sun Network and Govt FM Channel in Nepal
- 2019 – Three students are currently working as Assistant Directors under renowned Filmmaker Mr. R. Parthiban for his upcoming film.
- 2019 – One student has been placed in Indiaglitz Youtube channel as anchor and producer.

INDUSTRIAL VISITS

- Puthiya Thlaimurai TV Channel

- Doordarshan
- All India Radio
- US Consulate
- British Council